

Tom Watson Returns to The ACE Group Classic

VIP Hospitality Tickets and Ultimate Golf Experience Books now on sale

NAPLES, Fla. (JAN. 14, 2014) – World Golf Hall of Fame Member Tom Watson highlights the list of seven Hall of Famers added to The ACE Group Classic field today. The Official Champions Tour Event returns to The TwinEagles Club Feb. 11 – 16. Watson will compete in Naples for the first time since 2006 alongside fellow Hall of Famers Bernhard Langer, Hale Irwin, Tom Kite, Colin Montgomerie, Nick Price and Curtis Strange.

“The field is really shaping up to be one the strongest we’ve had,” said Tournament Director Gail Graham, “Obviously having Watson’s commitment is a great addition and adds another golf legend into the mix of great competitors in our field. It should make for an exciting week of golf at TwinEagles.”

Watson has captured eight major championships throughout his career including five Open Championships, two Masters titles and one U.S. Open. He currently ranks sixth on the list of total majors won. He is also the U.S. captain for this year’s Ryder Cup.

Langer, the defending ACE Group Classic Champion, joins Watson having also won The Masters twice in his career. In total, the seven Hall of Famers headed to Naples account for 19 major victories. Irwin has claimed three U.S. Opens, Strange has two U.S. Open titles - winning back-to-back in 1988 and 1989, Kite won the U.S. Open in 1992, and Price has two PGA Championships, along with an Open Championship title.

A 2013 inductee to the World Golf Hall of Fame, Montgomerie recorded eight European Tour Order of Merit titles (the European Tour’s top money winner) during his career, seven of which were won consecutively during 1993-99 and spent over 400 weeks in the top-10 World Golf Rankings.

The final field for the ACE Group Classic will be announced Friday, Feb. 7th.

About the Champions Tour

THE ACE GROUP

CLASSIC

Collectively, the Champions Tour has the most recognizable and accomplished players in the game with many of its 32 members of the World Golf Hall of Fame competing regularly in its events and numerous other major championship winners among its members. The Champions Tour is a membership organization of professional golfers age 50 and older. Conceived in 1980 as the Senior PGA Tour, it started with just four events and purses totaling $475,000. Points earned in official Charles Schwab Cup events in 2013 determined Kenny Perry as the Charles Schwab Cup champion, the season-long competition designed to recognize the Champions Tour's leading player. The Champions Tour's primary purpose is to provide financial opportunities for its players, entertain and inspire its fans, deliver substantial value to its partners, create outlets for volunteers to give back, protect the integrity of the game and generate significant charitable and economic impact in communities in which it plays. In 2013, tournaments on all five Tours (PGA TOUR, Champions Tour, Web.com Tour, PGA TOUR Latinoamerica, PGA TOUR Canada) generated more than $130 million for local charitable organizations. In 2014, the TOUR's all-time total of charitable contributions will surpass $2 billion. The Commissioner of the PGA TOUR is Tim Finchem. Mike Stevens is President of the Champions Tour. The PGA TOUR's website is pgatour.com, the No. 1 site in golf, and the organization is headquartered in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.
